

Love all Serve all

Full Chorus - Female section - Male section – Male+Female section

It's like a revolution Mightier and more pervasive than a tornado LOVE ALL

It's deeper than the sea SERVE ALL

A volcano asleep in our heart awoke us and from droplets.... LOVE ALL

We became the sea... SERVE ALL

That volcano in our heart Changed us into the sea

Its power will spread through all countries and towns

no one in the world will resist it

It'll sweep away all misery and fear and we'll know that we are

NOTHING BUT LOVE

That volcano in our heart changed us into the sea

And You with us We'll all be Your embrace

And then within us (We'll all be Your smile)

We will find You in the starving and parched ones that we will serve or in the laughter of the child we'll rejoice

We will meet You in the mother that needs to be consoled

We will hug her and You'll be her son

We'll endlessly listen to You in the memories that the old man loves to recount

love all serve all It begins with a smile or a simple hug

love all serve all And it swells up like the high tide

love all serve all (risp.) Then it wraps you into its truth

love all serve all -

love all serve all I will grow to love love all serve all And I'll love and serve with every action

love all serve all

Everybody is part of the One

And from a sudden intuition a thought grows inside LOVE ALL and turns into action SERVE ALL

And like a revelation we understand that giving love LOVE ALL is the most natural thing SERVE ALL just like inhaling and exhaling It's just like breathing

All borders dissolved, all distinctions destroyed

Oooh, we'll rejoice every day

We will look at each other and laugh with wonder

In seeing that we own the same face we are one and the same ... WE ARE ONE WITH YOU!

And you with us We'll all be your embrace,

And then within us We'll all be your smile ...

It's the choice of loving as warriors of peace,

For You've created us as angels of light.

We will lift the veil of silence / and reveal the unspoken Love

Through this choice ignorance will die

We will fly into the sunlight of Your compassion And even higher ...

love all serve all It begins with a smile or a simple hug

love all serve all And it swells up like the high tide

love all serve all That light will transform us love all serve all love all serve all

love all serve all

And in the end we'll understand, We'll realize and see Your Reality ...

... We will see You ... we will awake in You...
